Chapter 1 — Influence Over Authority

Leadership is not a title; it is the ability to move people without force. The influential leader earns trust by consistency, listens more than they speak, and turns conflict into alignment.

Chapter 2 — Building the Team

Hire for character, train for skill. A high-performing team shares a clear mission and psychological safety — people speak up because they are heard, not because they are told to.

Chapter 3 — Leading Change

Change fails when announced, not enrolled. Bring people into the 'why', let them shape the 'how', and celebrate the first small win in public.
